

iConference Registration allows banks to easily integrate the online registration process for investors and corporations with our 1:1 management of meetings within iConference

iConference Registration

Ipreo has partnered with StarCite, a global leader in web-based technology for managing corporate meetings and events, to provide a complete conference registration solution. StarCite Attendee Management is the most robust solution in the industry, allowing companies to easily automate the online registration process with customized event websites and attendee communications. Through this partnership StarCite's Attendee Management solution is available directly through Ipreo's event management applications, offering online registration, marketing campaign features, survey tools, and robust reporting on attendees. This dynamic integration creates and updates registration information simultaneously between the applications.
