MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION SECTION

Operator: Good day and welcome everyone to the Google Inc. Fourth Quarter 2006 Earnings Conference Call. Today's conference is being recorded. At this time for opening remarks and introductions, I would like to turn the call over to Kim Jabal, Director of Investor Relations. Please go ahead.

Kim Jabal, Director of Investor Relations

Good afternoon, everyone and welcome to our fourth quarter 2006 earnings equal. On the call with us today are Eric Schmidt, Chief Executive Officer; George Reyes, Chief Financial Officer; Larry Page, Founder and President of Products; Sergey Brin, Founder and President of Technology; Jonathan Rosenberg, Senior Vice President of Product Management; and Omid Kordestani, Senior Vice President of Global Sales and Operations. Eric, George, Larry, and Sergey will provide some thoughts on the quarter and then we'll have Jonathan and Omid join us for your questions.

This call is being webcast from our Investor Relations website. Our press release issued a few minutes ago is now posted on our website as well as presentation slides that will accompany today's prepared remarks. A replay of this call will be available within a few hours.

Some of the comments we will make today are forward-looking including statements regarding possible future benefits from our partner deals, growth in our headcount, future investments in absence partnerships, distribution and content, costs and benefits associated with implementing our transferable stock option program, future product innovations, our expected operating and capital expenses, charges associated with stock based compensation, possible future pressure on traffic acquisition cost rates and our expected tax rate. These statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by these forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include a variety of factors some of which are beyond our control.

These forward-looking statements speak only as of today and you should not rely on them as representing our views in the future and we undertake no obligation to update these statements after this call. Please refer to our SEC filings including our report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30th, 2006, as well as our earnings release posted a few minutes ago on our website for a more detailed description of the risk factors that may affect our results. Copies of these documents may be obtained from the SEC or by visiting the Investor Relations section of our website.
